BEST PRACTICES

1. As per the need of the hour we felt the necessity of sensitizing our students and the community around us towards transgenders. As we believe that every human is equal and has equal rights therefore a one day workshop as organized titled “Sensitizing Society Towards Transgender Identity and Acceptance”. Mx Dhananjay Chauhan from Chandigarh Dera and Mx. Vishwapreet from Jaipur Dera shared their life experiences with our students and motivated them, by their strong presence and academic achievements. Stakeholders of the society such as pediatricians, lawyers, psychiatrists, theatre artists, professors, NGOs shared their views on various aspects of transgender life, laws, rights.
2. We had begun skill development courses under PMKVY and TISS in the year 2015 and 2016 respectively. As a result our 258 students have been trained in various skill courses and 98 got employed.
